SPEAKERS

Felicia Culbreath-Setzer - Community Leader, Motivational Speaker, Mentor, Parental Education Activist, is a native of Hickory NC. 1980 Graduate of Hickory High School, 1984/ 1986 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a BS in Political Science/ Economics and MS Economics (86). She is a Civil servant with 29 years of governmental experience , 22 years with the State of North Carolina, previously with the Employment Security Commission and now with the Department of Commerce- Division of Workforce Solutions . Currently she serves as Regional Operations Director for the Northwest Prosperity Zone, which include the 12 counties from Catawba to Mitchell .

She has served in various roles with ESC/ Commerce, including a Claims Specialist, Fraud Investigator, NCWorks Career Center Manager.

She currently serves on both the Western Piedmont Workforce Development Board and the High Country Workforce Development Board.

Felicia will discuss the difference between local NCWorks Center and the Division of Employment Security, she will provide some interesting Unemployment facts and discuss What’s next- the New Normal – a proactive look into Workforce Solutions.

Jessica Lopez has been working with Centro Latino now for the last four years and has had such a great experience. The latin/hispanic culture is very close to her heart after spending four years living in Puerto Rico as a missionary. She loves to see a melting pot of cultures come together and believes that this is what Centro Latino provides. Her job is to help children coming from spanish speaking homes to achieve success in our primarily english speaking school systems. The program helps children from kindergarten to fifth grade by providing tutoring in homework and reading comprehension. Centro’s desire is to see these children merge successfully into the english speaking system and grow to be great students and future leaders.
